

British Troops To Help Sultan Defeat Rebels

Occupy Port of Brusa and Make Elaborate Preparations on Coast of Marmora for Aggressive Action

Warships in Black Sea

Fortifications at Trebizond and Samsun Destroyed and Population Disarmed

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30 (By The Associated Press).—British troops, it is believed, plan to support the Sultan's forces in the movement against Turkish Nationalists in Asia Minor, and even join in an aggressive offensive against Mustafa Kemal. Lieutenant General Sir G. F. Milne, commander of British forces here, has gone to Ismid on an inspection tour, and elaborate preparations are being made by the British along the Anatolian coast of the Sea of Marmora, where they have occupied Mudania, the port of Brusa.

The occupation of Mudania was effected with East Indian troops, and it is expected the British will soon take over Brusa, which is a prominent Nationalist center. The "underground route" from Constantinople to Anatolia has been through Marmara ports, which the British now apparently intend to control.

Council Reports Censored

Fragmentary reports of the San Remo council session have been printed in the Constantinople papers. The messages were heavily censored. The Nationalists expect that the actual delivery of the completed peace terms with Turkey will help their cause. Differences between the British on the one hand and the French and the Italians on the other, as to the handling

Turk Says Armenians Persecute Moslems

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30 (By The Associated Press).—Kiazim Kara Bekir, commanding the 15th Turkish Army at Erzerum, wrote a letter on March 30 to the Armenian commander of that district, protesting against persecution of the Turks by Armenians in the Kars and Ardahan sections since last January. The Turkish commander charged that twenty-eight Mahometan villages had been destroyed, that cattle had been stolen and the populations maltreated. He declared that upward of 2,000 of the residents of the villages were forced to proceed toward Kars and that the majority of them died on the way.

The Circassians, who have been fighting in various parts of Anatolia, apparently are fighting the Sultan's forces as well as the troops of Mustafa Kemal. The Circassians declare they are interested in the Sultan's religious position, which has been injured by the denunciation of the Nationalists. Furthermore, they say the Sultan's troops failed to give him proper protection against foreigners, especially the British, and must die for their neglect of their master.

The Circassians are chiefly bandits who boast that they will personally go to Constantinople to give the Sultan freedom from the foreign oppressors.

British Officers Active

The British Admiral De Robeck, commanding the Allied fleet in the Dardanelles, has sailed for Batumi on the battleship Ajax, presumably to arrange the status of the free port provided for by the agreement of the Allied council at San Remo. British warships recently visited both Trebizond and Samsun, taking away British women and children, destroying the old fortifications and disarming the public, according to the armistice provisions. The British insured that the Bolshe-

Writ Halts Fight for Office in Wall Street

Tenant Whose Effects Were Moved Out Claims Right to Renewal of Lease

Justice McAvoy lifted a two day siege yesterday which the Elysee Olive Oil Company had maintained against a boarded up office on the second floor of 71 Wall Street. The office is under lease to the company until to-day. The property recently was sold by the American Cotton and Grain Exchange, Inc., to the Munson Steamship Company.

Then the office force of the olive oil company left Wednesday night, there was not a sign of battle. On Thursday morning things looked altogether different. All the belongings of the oil company had been removed. The safe was in the hall, the furniture was on the twentieth floor and the telephone wires had been disconnected.

Inquiry brought the information that the Munson company had decided to end the tenancy of the olive oil company, although the latter contends that they gave notice on January 2 to the former owner that they availed themselves of the option to renew the lease from May 1. The landlord, it was said, caused the doors to be boarded and placed a guard in the office. Somehow the tenant also got two men inside and they remained on guard for the olive oil company.

That was the situation yesterday when the olive oil company obtained a temporary injunction from Justice McAvoy which had the effect of lifting the siege. Justice Whitaker will hear argument for a permanent injunction on Monday.

Berlin Fears New Revolt in South; Will Send Troops

Situation Declared Serious in Speech to Diet; Arms Are Discovered Hidden on an Island in the Baltic

BERLIN, April 30.—The German government probably will have to revoke its previous decision not to intervene in the territory south of the Ruhr, because the chief burgomaster of Hagen has declared that he no longer can assume responsibility for the maintenance of order there.

This announcement was made in the Prussian Diet to-day by Minister of the Interior Severing.

LONDON, April 30.—It was officially announced in Berlin to-day that German state defense troops will march into the southern Ruhr district for the protection of public order and industry, says a wireless message from the German capital this afternoon.

The situation in the Ruhr district is grave and an anarchist movement is feared.

A large secret stock of arms has been discovered at Ruesgen, an island in the Baltic Sea, in the Province of Pomerania. A dispatch to the Central News says the leader of the land guards, who is charged with appropriating the arms, has been arrested. The land guard has been disbanded.

The reasons for the recent action of the government in ordering the disbandment of the civil guard were explained in the Prussian National Assembly to-day by Herr Severing. He said it was not desirable for Germany "to remain in the enemy's fetters," and, besides, the impression must not be given that Germany was not in earnest about fulfilling the terms of the peace treaty.

The Minister said that Germany would try to reach an understanding with the Entente relative to the form which the substitute for the civil guard should take.

The National Assembly adjourned to-day for three weeks. It will reassemble May 19.

France to Meet Berlin in Economic Conference

Alleged Discrimination Against French Importers To Be One of the Subjects Considered

PARIS, April 30.—An economic conference between delegates representing France and Germany was arranged yesterday by Premier Millerand and Dr. Goepfert. It will probably be held in Paris at an early date, depending upon the arrival of the Germans.

The conference is the outcome of the conversations Premier Millerand had with Dr. Mayer, the German Chargé d'Affaires here, which were interrupted by the entry of the German troops into the neutral zone of the Rhineland.

The Germans showed a disposition to make the conference contingent upon evacuation of Frankfurt by the French. M. Millerand replied that the questions were entirely separate. The conditions of the evacuation having been fixed by the San Remo conference, he declared they must be complied with.

One of the first questions the French will raise is alleged discrimination against French exporters through the manipulation of special import licenses. An effort will be made at the outset to establish relations on the basis of the Treaty of Versailles, after which the French delegates will welcome discussion of such economic advantages as France might be able to accord Germany.

It is understood the Germans will propose an understanding by which ruinous competition in the sale of Ger-

Monarchists Fear Advance in Ukraine

Polish Drive Menaces Plan to Place Grand Duke Nicholas on the Throne

BERLIN, April 30.—The advance of the Polish armies under General Pilsudski into the Ukraine is endangering plans of the monarchists for the overthrow of the Bolshevik government in that country, according to advice received here.

Information obtained in private sources is that the monarchists hope to put Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch, former commander in chief of the Russian armies, on the throne in the Ukraine, under a democratic constitution. It is said the plans of the monarchists, who have the support of the peasants, are endangered because of the hostility of the peasant class to General Pilsudski and the Poles. Pilsudski's promise to drive the Bolsheviks from the Ukraine and protect the Russian empire, on the other hand, is said, is said, the Ukrainians do not relish accepting help from the Poles.

The monarchist movement contemplates the breaking up of the many large landed estates in the Ukraine and the distribution of them among the peasants.
